NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS AND BUILDERS.

Important Discoveries and New Arrangements!

THE subscriber has discovered upon his premises a splendid

which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city,

A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material,

He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated

Monterey Lime Stone Quarry,

on a scale equal to the demands of our enterprising citizens, and in order to accommodate his numerous customers, he has made arrangements to keep constantly on hand a large supply of

ATHENS MARBLE

(or Chicago stone.) He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the same, at a great reduction from former prices.

He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.

He is prepared to furnish

Cut Stone

of every description.

PLAIN, MOULDED, CARVED OR POLISHED FLAGGING

of any required dimension.

Curbing, Paving, Ruble and Coursing

stone of the best quality in the state, all of which will be delivered at his Quarries or any part of the city, to suit purchasers.

In conclusion, he begs to assure the public that from the superior quality of his materials, and facilities for furnishing, he can and will make it to their interests to patronize the Monterey Quarries.

All Orders from the city or country will be promptly attended to.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

The Vote for Chief Justice.

The official vote received at Madison indicates the election of Judge Dixon. The Madison Journal has the official vote for forty three counties in which Sloan's majority is 294, with Shawano, Douglas, Buffalo, Clark, Chippewa, Dunn, Door, La Fayette, La Pointe, Pepin, and Trempealeau still to come in.

The Shullsburgh Local brings us the returns for La Fayette county which gives 641 majority for Dixon. This probably, secures his election by two or three hundred majority.

P. S. The telegraph informs us that Dixon is probably elected by 150 majority.

An Awkward Record.

It will be remembered that near the close of the struggle for Speaker of the present House, the votes of the democrats, with a few exceptions were concentrated on W. N. H. Smith of North Carolina, (American) running him up to 112, which all but elected him. Among those who voted for Mr. Smith, were Harris, Robinson, McClernand, Fouke and Logan of Illinois, and Larrabee of Wisconsin. Mr. Adrain, of New Jersey, in response to an inquiry, has written the following letter, which we commend to the special attention of the adopted citizens of Wisconsin who vote the democratic ticket:

WASHINGTON, March 10, 1860.

Dear Sir:—I received your letter of the [illegible] and cheerfully give you such knowledge as I possess, respecting the political views of the Hon. Mr. Smith of North Carolina, the subject to which you refer, who was a candidate for the office of Speaker of the House of Representatives, and for whom the Hon. Mr. Allen, of your state, refused to give his vote.

In a conversation which I had with Mr. Smith a few days after the election of Mr. Pennington as Speaker, he remarked to me that he was supported by the American party in his district for congress, and that he had been misrepresented on the floor of the house, by several democratic members, who asserted that he had repudiated the principles of that party; that in his opinion, the period of five years for naturalization was altogether too short, and that in his published speeches throughout his district, when running as a candidate for congress, he advocated its extension to AT LEAST TEN YEARS.

During the same conversation, he expressed his views on the slavery question, maintaining that congress should intervene and protect slave property in the territories, if necessary, and utterly rejecting the great democratic doctrine of popular sovereignty.

Without extending this letter further, I will simply remark, that this is about the substance of the conversation which I had with Mr. Smith. Yours truly,

G. B. ADRAIN.

The foreign voters of this state will perceive by this that their leaders united in trying to elect a know nothing Speaker, [illegible] united in this work. His candidate, it will be perceived, is equally committed to the extension of the time for the naturalization of foreigners, and the protection of slavery in the territories. These two principles go together. The slave power hates foreigners in the same ratio that it loves slavery. The settlement of free white men in the south from foreign countries, interferes with the large planters. [illegible] to have poor white people in the neighborhoods. They have an instinctive [illegible] that there is some kind of conflict between free and slave labor, and they do not want examples of that kind before them.—Hence they are for extending the time for naturalization, and against homestead bills which give foreigners an equal opportunity with natives of the country.

We do not know how long the foreign born population of this country mean to support their political enemies, but we think the support of the whole democratic party for a know nothing Speaker ought to open their eyes.

MISSOURI DOUGLASISM.—The democratic state convention of Missouri has appointed eleven delegates in favor of Douglas and eight against him. It, however, takes strong ground in favor of the extension and perpetuation of slavery. Assuming as an indisputable fact that all the territories are slave soil, the resolutions proceed to affirm what it designates these cardinal principles: 1st. That congress has no power to abolish slavery in the territories. 2d. That territorial legislatures have no power to abolish or inhibit slavery either by direct or unfriendly legislation, nor any power to impair the right of property in slaves. 3d. That the fugitive slave law has unquestionable claim to the respect and observance of all. 4th. That the early acquisition of Cuba is desirable.

If Douglas is nominated they will have a platform of another color in Wisconsin. It will be a shade or two whiter, on the outside, while the inside will correspond in complexion with the democratic sentiment of the south. For instance they "respect" the fugitive slave law in Missouri, while the Wisconsin democracy adopt a candidate who believes it unconstitutional. This is no evidence of their belief, but of their want of principle.

☞ The Chicago Herald blows up Owen Lovejoy for his "violence" but says never a word about Pryor and Barksdale. Those mild and amiable gentlemen are always right.

WIGFALL STILL RISING.—Senator Wigfall's last announcement proves that his power of eating fire increases daily. "The state of Texas," he shouted, "was a sovereign state, and exercised rights which had never been delegated to this miserable one horse concern at Washington."

The table presented by us in another column shows how egregious were the blunders made by clerks, printers and canvassers in the late election. A brilliant worthy down in Grant county, sent up word, officially that "Scott Sloan" received 97 votes, and that one Luther B. Dixon received 182 votes. From the city of Janesville, where men of ordinary intelligence ought to transact their official duties 70 votes for Dixon are returned with some initial aside from the correct one. In Kenosha, eight blockheads voted for "Ixon," or, at least, are so returned.—Madison Argus.

No doubt you are very wise on the subject of canvassing election returns, but it is doubtful whether you are as well informed as you suppose, Mr. Argus. The returns for Luther H. Dixon are from Beloit and the town of Rock, in this county, and we are assured that they are correct. The people, to the number of 70 voted for Luther H. Dixon, and the canvassers, as in duty bound made their returns accordingly.

Their ballots cannot be canvassed for Luther S. Dixon, unless these seventy voters come forward and swear that they were mistaken, and intended to vote for him.

THE ALBANY TIMES.—We learn that J. Baker, Esq., formerly editor of the Free Press of this city, has purchased the Times, published at Albany, Green county. Mr. Baker possesses the ability to make an excellent newspaper, and we have no doubt he will do it. He has our best wishes in the enterprise. We hope the people of Albany will liberally sustain the paper, and we are quite sure that it will more than repay them, by bringing their town to the notice of the public, and in advancing the general interests of the locality where it is published.

BRIDGE CREEK HEARD FROM.—The Eau Claire Free Press gives the returns from this celebrated locality. It seems to have changed its politics since the days of "supplementary returns."

BRIDGE CREEK.—The glorious town of Bridge Creek is as true to republicanism as the needle to the pole. Out of 81 votes which she cast this spring, 72 of them were given to Spencer and Sloan. She is one of the strongholds of the county and her influence is always given for the right. All honor to the republicans of Bridge Creek.

☞ In view of the election of Dixon the Patriot says its rooster crows for the people and "the rights of all the states."—Considering that the Supreme Court of the United States is engaged in destroying the rights of the states, and in breaking down the barriers of the constitution to effect its purpose, this "crow" seems to be a little misplaced.

RESIGNED.—We regret to learn that Rev. H. W. Beers, pastor of Grace church, has resigned his charge, and accepted a call to Janesville, Wis. Mr. Beers has for several years resided in Lyons, and has won the universal esteem of our citizens, By his removal Grace church loses a faithful and worthy pastor and our city a good and valuable citizen. The good wishes of many warm friends will go with him to his new home.—Lyons (Iowa) Mirror.

Thus speak the neighbors of Rev. Mr. Beers, who is now the Pastor of Trinity church in this city. He has entered upon the discharge of his duties here, and preached his first sermon on Sunday last. We doubt not he will soon number as many warm friends among our citizens as at Lyons.

BENNETT ON PRYOR—PRYOR SHOWS THE WHITE FEATHER.—We publish elsewhere the particulars of the last Pickwickian duel at Washington. The parties were Pryor, of Virginia, and Potter, of Wisconsin, both members of the house. The affair is quite fresh in the minds of the public. On last Wednesday Pryor attempted to bully Potter, but without success. Potter refused to eat his words, whereupon the truculent member from Virginia made use of the most portentous language, speaking thus:—"The gentleman stands by his language, I understand him to give me the privilege of construing his remarks as I choose. Whether or no he will stand by it the sequel will demonstrate."

What is the sequel? How has the mountain labored, and what has it brought forth? Pryor challenges Potter in a Boabadil fashion, expecting that as dueling is especially repugnant to Potter's constituents, he will back down. Not a bit of it. Potter is not to be so easily moulded. Potter will be charmed to fight. Potter will select bowie knives, a favorite weapon with southern political nigger drivers. Pryor objects to the pet weapon of his class as "vulgar and inadmissible." Potter adheres to the humane and civilizing invention of Colonel Bowie, and Pryor and his friends say that they really cannot have anything to do with a person who plays with such nasty edge tools. Whereupon Colonel Lander, the friend of Potter, declares that he will take the place of the bloodthirsty Wolverine, and accomodate Pryor with hair triggers, or any "gentlemanly," elegant or refined weapons suited to the taste of the F. F. V.'s, some of whom, by the way, have fought with Bowie knives, and that not long ago. But Pryor "has no quarrel" with the colonel of wagon road fame, and so the matter drops. Potter goes back to the house, and the republicans chuckle. Pryor slinks about like a dog, his tail between his legs, and all the decent persons on the democratic side of the house are thoroughly ashamed of him.

We hope this ridiculous affair will not be without its moral lesson for those members of congress, on either side of the house, who have attempted to cover up their ignorance of the real duties and responsibilities of statesmen by assuming the manner, while they have not the pluck, of blackguards and shoulder-hitters. It is all very well for fellows like Pryor, who abuse women and non-combatants, until some fine day when they wake up the wrong passenger and have to eat dirt. The lesson is a wholesome one, and we hope that it will have a good effect upon congress, and keep the bullies straight, for the remainder of this session at least.—N. Y. Herald.

KEWAUNEE COUNTY.—We make the following extract from a private letter, from a friend in Kewaunee county, written April 5th, two days after election. He says:

"In this town of Carlton, there were polled 107 votes for town officers, and 98 for Justice of the supreme court, of which Sloan got 79, and Dixon 19, and not a Sloan ticket sent to this town, (given up for lost, I suppose.) Consequently all had to be written, and 19 votes were lost on that account. At the same time these voters all came loaded down with Dixon tickets. But a little exposition of the true principles from the top of a maple stump, sent the Dixon tickets into a thousand pieces, and such a demand for Sloan tickets you never saw for a small crowd."

The writer does not give the result in any other town, but it is quite evident that, unless some influence similar to the above was at work, the county has given a considerable majority for Dixon.—Free Dem.

Telegraphic

REPORTED FOR THE MORNING GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

LA FAYETTE COUNTY.—The official majority for Dixon in La Fayette county is 641.

MADISON, April 17.

Forty-six counties give Sloan 414 maj. Shawano, Douglas, Lafayette and Pepin are reported officially at 796 majority for Dixon. Clark, Door, Lapointe and Trempeleau not heard from. Probably Dixon 150 majority.

WASHINGTON, April 17.

HOUSE.—Mr. Schwartz offered a resolution which was read for information, instructing the committee on public expenditures to report a bill reducing the compensation of members of congress to $8 per diem for each day of actual service, and providing also that when both houses, by joint resolution, adjourned to attend a political convention the members voting therefor shall not receive pay during the recess.—(Laughter.)

Mr. Sherman objected to the resolution.

Mr. Houston understood that some gentleman drew their pay when paired off and absent, and if so he wanted this abuse corrected.

The house went into committee on the deficiency appropriation bill.

Mr. Conklin reviewed the president's position in regard to slavery in the territories as expressed in his annual message. The inhabitants of the free states have ever sought by moral and political forces to dissuade and discourage slavery. The contentions on this subject have given rise to bravado in this hall on both sides, and have lashed the public mind into intense activity. From this time forth we are to have results not arguments of issues, not compromises. The free states insist that slavery shall remain legalized only in slave holding states, and even their its increase must be unaided by piracy. They have an unalterable determination that slavery shall not range this continent. There is even those who hope that in its abiding place it will wither and die. This is the prayer of humanity, not the mission of a party. If the supreme court are infallible, then the constitution is nothing but wax in their hands. If the constution be as they expound it then in this year of grace, our allegiance is due to an instrument very different from that which guided the house who came before us.

SENATE.—A message was received from the president inclosing a communication from the secretary of war in reply to a resolution asking for information as to the seizure and imprisonment of naturalized citizens by foreign governments. The communication was not read, but was ordered to be printed.

Mr. Wilson offered a joint resolution authorizing a collection and publication of documents relating to the history of the colonization of America by commercial companies in England incorporated in 1606. Referred to the committee on the library.

WASHINGTON, April 16th.

A great number of delegates to Charleston have reached the city to-night, and all is animation and excitement. It is said that Douglas stock has declined, through a division of New England delegates for Gov. Toucey under the lead of Genl. Whiting, collector of Boston.

The Douglas rooms at the National are crowded, and speeches have been made by Senator Clingman and by Messrs. Hamilton of Texas, Vallindingham, Butler King of Georgia, Rust of Alabama, and others.

The Marshal of Ohio reports that the inhabitants of Ashtabula county are ready to take arms to resist the authority of the senate for bringing John Brown before the committee of investigation of the Harper's Ferry affair.

Col. Lander leaves here to-morrow, accompanied by two or three engineers, who have hitherto served with him on the wagon road expedition. His future business will be to inspect whatever may be done under contract, to furnish water along the route between Humbolt Valley and Honey Lake; also to remove impediments, &c.

Gen. Hamilton and Major Brittian have again addressed the military committee, in favor of the Texas regiment bill, and have demonstrated the impossibility of making the infantry efficient by mounting them.—Recruits in the army are not horsemen, while the Camanches are the best horsemen in the world.

Secretary Floyds letter was received by the committee.

President Buchanan gave as his reason for not doing so, a fear that his recommendation would injure the bill in the present state of party feeling. The result is still unsettled.

There are some singular facts connected with the arrest of Mr. Potter. The officer called at the Benne House and sent up the name of Mr. Keitt or Keiss.

Mr. Potter sent word for him to come up. When he was ushered in he informed Mr. Potter he had come on unpleasant business. Mr. Potter supposed that the correspondence was to be re-opened, and that Hon. L. M. Keitt, of S. C., was below. The officer then informed him that he had a warrant for the arrest of Mr. Pryor and himself.—Mr. Potter expressed his surprise, as he had been in the house, in the street, and had participated in debate. The officer said he had been to Alexandria, but found the mayor and all Mr. Pryor's friends opposed to an arrest, and that he was obliged to let him go. Mr. Potter then went to the magistrate's office and gave bonds. About this time Mr. Pryor arrived in Washington with Mr. Pryor's last note to Mr. Potter.—Mr. Chislom was subsequently arrested and brought to this city, but was allowed to go without bonds. Mr. Allen, the officer who arrested Mr. Potter, was shown all the correspondence at Alexandria, but not the note from Mr. Pryor accepting the terms of Mr. Pryor is arrested, and is to appear to-morrow and give bail. A street fight was feared, and both parties were closely watched by their friends to-day.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., April 17.

Report says that Adams & Co.'s express messenger on the train from Boston was robbed last night. The safe is said to have been thrown from the baggage car between New York and New Haven, and is said to have contained $100,000.

NEW YORK, April 17th.

The debate on the slavery question which for several days has occupied the Methodist Episcopal Conference, continued through the whole of yesterday and was brought to a close last eve. The Erie resolutions which call upon the general conference to so change the rule of discipline that all slaveholding shall be cause for ex-communication, were negatived by the decisive vote of 123 to 43.

THE VIRGINIA AGENT IN LIMBO.—The agent of Virginia, named Camp, who was sent to Iowa to arrest Coppoc, and whose adventures in escaping from the Muscatine landlord, have gone the rounds of the press, has finally brought up in the Rock Island jail. The embassador was "jugged" at the instance of Mr. Smith, of the Island City Hotel, who wrote some days since to the secretary of state of Virginia, in reference to his bill against Camp. The reply he received was that Camp was no longer an agent of the state, and even if he was, that fact did not render Virginia liable for his debts. He was accordingly "capiased." A fearful view to take of the case is that the F. F. V.'s may consider this arrest as clearly justifying them in dissolving the Union. —Rock Island Advertiser.

ONE RULE FOR THE NORTH AND ANOTHER FOR THE SOUTH.—Senator Sumner, on Friday, called the attention of the senate to the outrageous treatment experienced by Mr. Sanborn, at the hands of the United States officials who were sent to arrest and bring him before Mr. Mason's Harper's Ferry committee. He improved the occasion to contrast this brutal proceeding with the very different course pursued towards Gov. Wise. This functionary openly proclaimed that he knew a great deal more about the Harper's Ferry matter than he chose to tell even to the investigating committee. Of course, the committee prudently resolved not to send for Gov. Wise, who knew so much about the affair, but despatched officers to drag, handcuffed to Washington, a citizen of Massachusetts, who knew nothing about it. The reader will plainly perceive that there was nothing "sectional" in this course.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

DUEL UNDER THE ROCKY MOUNTAINS—CIVILIZATION AND ITS CUSTOMS.—The Rocky Mountain News brings us full particulars of the late duel between Gov. Bliss, of Jefferson territory, and Dr. Stone, member of the legislature, which resulted in the death of the latter. The first offence was given by Gov. Bliss, in a toast at a dinner party, and, singular enough, considering the time and place, was deliberate, and designed as a personal reflection and insult. This was avowed on the spot, and of course it only remained for the parties to settle the terms of the meeting. These were shot guns, loaded with a single ball, distance thirty paces, time three o'clock in the afternoon, place Highland side of the Platte river.

At the appointed hour, the principals took their stations. The sun, which was obscured by flying clouds, was over Mr. Bliss' left shoulder. The wind over Dr. Stone's left shoulder, and blowing in light fitful gusts, directly in the face of Mr. Bliss. Dr. Stone removed his coat and vest, leaving only a close fitting suit of dark cloth. Mr. Bliss wore a loose sack of brown cloth, buttoned down in front, but very loose and flowing. The word was given by Mr. Warren, two or three times in practice, when the arms were presented to the combatants, the seconds and the surgeon retired, and the fatal word was given.

The report of Dr. Stone's gun followed immediately the word "fire," Mr. Bliss' was an instant later and perfectly distinct.

Dr. Stone fell to the ground, supposed to be mortally wounded, the ball of his opponent entering the left thigh, penetrating the bladder and passing through his entire body. The ball of Dr Stone struck the ground some ten feet in advance of his opponent. Dr. Stone declined a second fire, the parties were then removed from the ground.

It is stated that the duel was witnessed by from 600 to 800 spectators, who were very quiet and orderly, and dispersed immediately after seeing the result.

A SENATOR ON POVERTY AS A CRIME.—Here is an elegant extract of a recent speech by Senator Wigfall, of Texas:

"It was popular to talk of the poor.—Poverty, he said, was a crime. The man who was poor had sinned, and there was a screw loose in his head somewhere. He would amend the title of the bill to read 'for the encouragement of crime, providing for criminals and violating the constitution.' It was popular, he repeated, to talk of the bone and sinew of the land, of wool hats and brogans, but poverty was a crime. He would not pander to prejudice by such talk. The bill provided for the purlieus of London, the five points of New York, and criminals who violate the law when they get on the lands. The bill provides for those unable to provide for themselves. Gentlemen tried to be popular in the introduction of such a bill. It was a great mistake of any man to suppose that the people had no sense. [Laughter.] These lands would be occupied by the outpourings of jails, &c., and when they were represented in congress, he would like to see the man who wore the ermine. Great God! what a sight it would be."

Somebody asked Wigfall if Texas had not set the example by donating public lands. They didn't catch Wigfall that way. He slipped the bridle and run, like this:

"Texas could please her own fancy. She had a right to do as she pleased with her own property, to give it to a missionary society, to publish a Bible, or to gamble it off in hell. [Laughter.] Texas was a free sovereign state, and exercised rights which were not delegated to this miserable one-horse concern in Washington." [Renewed laughter.]

The Fighting Chivalry.

What an arrant set of cowards and bullies the democratic chivalry are—when it comes to the sticking point. Mr. Roger A. Pryor is a scion of one of the most illustrious of the F. F. V's., by birth and education, claiming to be a gentleman and a brave man. But by manners and conduct proving himself to be a blackguard and a coward. Mr. Pryor stands forth as the representative of southern chivalry. An old and experienced duellist an excellent pistol shot, and expert in all the laws of the "code duello," the Virginian has fought several duels—by his deadly aim he has generally succeeded in "pricking" his antagonist, and by presenting his feather edge (according to the code) to his adversary's pistol, he has always come off without material damage. In view of the many combats, and a supposed willingness to fight anybody, at any time on any or no provocation, the "chivalry" of his district in Virginia, put their wise brave heads together and elected this illustrious scion of the F. F. V's., to a seat in congress. Under an express warrant and stipulation, that the aforesaid Pryor was to brow beat and bully his brother members, and the north generally at any every opportunity.

Mr. Pryor goes to congress, he makes a speech and as a rational and inevitable consequence of opening his mouth makes an ass of himself, by a violent disunion harrangue. Good! say his chivalrous constituents.

Mr. Pryor in pursuit of his contract—in reply to an unanswerable argument, of John Hickman of Pennsylvania, stretches himself to his full height of six feet or more, and tells the pale consumptive Hickman that he is a liar.

"Bravo! say the F. F. V's.

Bennett of the Herald takes Pryor to task for his congressional course, and in reply the gentlemanly Virginian assails the chastity of Bennett's wife. All decent men are disgusted—but "Huzzah for Pryor!" say the pleased hangers of old John Brown. Pryor is delighted. Pryor feels his consequence. In the pride of his heart he extends a general invitation to anybody to tread on his coat tails, or knock a chip off his shoulder and exclaims, "I am Sir Oracle, and when I ope my lips let no dog bark."

Lovejoy makes a speech, assailing the loved relic of barbarism. Down rushes the irrepressible Pryor to break down the black republican—but—do his eyes deceive him! several northern members rush forward in defence of free speech, and not liking the looks of things, the Virginian withdraws, and in revenge crosses out in the Globe report the actions and speech of his principal opponents.

Growls from his constituents!

What shall I do to regain my credit at home? queries the honorable member from Virginia. I am obliged to retire and let Lovejoy alone, and the northern member whose words I erased from the Globe report, actually tells me to my face that I had no business to do so! Eureka! I have it, this man is Potter of Wisconsin. I will challenge Potter, he will refuse and then I will accuse the north of cowardice, or if he accepts, egad! I will shoot him—Potter shall die, and my credit at home shall be sufficient thereat to elect me Governor at least.

Accordingly the challenge was sent, but much to the disgust of the Honorable Roger A. Pryor the member from Wisconsin, Mr. Potter, will fight, and furthermore not being familiar with the pistols, is not content to stand up like a southern gentleman and have a ball decently and pleasantly located under the fifth rib, but he actually proposes Bowie knives! The brute! The honorable member from Virginia is willing to stand upon a sort of "heads I win, tails you lose arrangement," and exchange shots with a tyro in pistol practice, but the idea of having a "demd" unpleasant loosening of his bowels, the thought of being pleasantly tickled with the point of a Bowie knife don't suit the F. F. V., and he declines in a dignified manner on account of the weapon being barbarous and inhuman, and as Potter refuses being a target, the duel can't come off.

Now what is to be done? Here is the redoubtable Pryor actually spoiling for a fight, if he can only fight with pistols.

He is accommodated; up steps Col. Lander and offers to fight him with his own weapons.

Ah! the Virginia is once more happy! Col. Lander is Mr. Potter's second; Col. Lander is a northern man, born in Massachusetts, the very hot bed of black republicanism; Col. Lander will fight with pistols.

But stop! This Lander is one of the best pistol shots in the country; this Lander can ring the bell at fifteen paces (a gentlemanly distance) every time; and the chances are, that if Pryor went out with him, one of the most illustrious of the F. F. V.'s would be obliged to go into the expense of mourning, and a gentleman about the size of Roger A. Pryor be in need of an undertaker, and coppers for his eyelids. And therefore, under all the circumstances, the Virginian is glad to slink back to his seat like a whipped cur—quit giving the lie, and pin up his coat tails amidst groans from his constituents, and a shrewd suspicion in outside quarters that Roger A. Pryor is like all bullies—a coward at heart.

THE CARSTANG–SHAW CASE.—There was quite a crowd present at the opening of the court of common pleas, yesterday, in anticiption of another chapter being commenced in the celebrated breach of promise trial; but the plaintiff's counsel failing to appear on behalf of the motion for a new trial, the crowd went away disappointed. The interest in the case in the community, appears to have increased rather than diminished, by the verdict for the defendant. Miss Carstang and her sister, are reported to have vacated their house, No. 123, Fifth street, which was so often alluded to on the trial, and was the scene of the alleged courtship between the millionarie and the ironing girl. Only one thing remains to give the finishing touch to the case, and that is a dramatization of the whole affair. Miss Carstang, the poor girl; Mr. Shaw, the rich man; the introduction; the calls; the flowers and the gloves; Miss C. at Tower Grove; Mrs. Seaman looking through the key-hole; scenes in the Ffth street house; Effie combing a lap dog with a fine tooth comb; the promise to marry; desertion; the suit; the lawyers; judge and jury; verdict for the injured innocence, $100,000; a sudden transformation; hopes dashed to the earth; new trial; old man jubilant; Song, "We are off for Charleston;" the return with depositions and witnesses; second trial; scenes in court; the lie direct; verdict for the defendant.—Tableau. Miss Carstang as she appeared when she heard the news; Tower Grove sporteth a flag; red fire, etc., etc., etc.—These matters properly written, and skillfully handled by some patch-work author, like Bourcicault, would make a splendid drama, and will insure a run of a hundred nights on its production.—Missouri Democrat.

The United Presbyterian church of Scotland, has secured, by contribution, an "aged ministers' retiring fund" of $95,000. Ministers compelled by age or infirmity to desist from the active labors of their office, are to receive an annuity of $300 each, from the interest of this fund. The English congregational Union is engaged, with every promise of early success, in an effort to secure, by similar means, $250 annually for each aged or infirm minister.

MARRIED.

Mr. Doty is the foreman of our job room, and many of our citizens have had the evidence of his skill and taste as a practical workmen. Good luck go with him, and may the same excellencies which have characterised the discharge of his duties in his old vocation shine brightly in the new relations he has assumed.

MOST EXTRAORDINARY RESULTS
FROM THE USE OF
WINCHESTER'S GENUINE
Hypophosphites
IN THE CURE OF CONSUMPTION.

I need only call the attention of all Consumptive sufferers, whether in advanced or the incipient stage of the disease, to the following extract from a letter addressed to me by a physician of great experience, and extensive practice in Chester Co., Pa. The voluntary evidence of professional men, such as that of Dr. Townsend, ought to convince the most skeptical of the extraordinary efficacy of my preparation of Hypophosphites:

CHATHAM, PA., 3d Month, 26th, 1860.

FRIEND J. WINCHESTER:— * * Thirty-six persons have obtained the medicine from me, twelve of whom have been under my own care. Five of them were, in my opinion, and in the judgment of other physicians, hopeless cases of Phthisis—irritable cough, copious expectorations of a purulent character, night sweats and emaciation. These cases were from one to three years' standing. Auscultation and percussion developed sounds which, taken in connection with other symptoms, gave evidence of a condition from which I have never, in seventeen years' practice, seen a single case recover by any other treatment. * * Under the use of the Hypophosphites, all the bad symptoms ceased; they have gained flesh and strength and health—some of them better than they had enjoyed for seven years previously.

The other cases under my care were in the incipient stage, and in them all symptoms and traces of the disease have disappeared. Of those who were not under my care, I have not heard of a single patient who himself benefitted by the use of the remedy, although in some of them the disease was too far advanced to admit the possibility of recovery.

I presume I am as skeptical in medicines or specifics as most physicians; yet, from the experience I have had in the use of Dr. J. F. Churchill's Remedy for Tuberculosis, I would say to all who have a tendency to that disease—take it, and the sooner the better, before there is any disorganization. * * *
W. W. TOWNSEND, M. D.

The Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda act with promptness and certainty in every stage of Consumption, and with invariable efficacy in all derangements of the nervous and blood systems, general debility, dyspepsia, asthma, rickets, female complaints, spermatorrhea, in all disorders dependent on imperfect or impaired nutrition, and in all cases of local or constitutional debility. They increase the nervous or vital energy, relieve cough, check night sweats, diminish expectoration, improve the appetite, arrest diarrhea, promote refreshing sleep, and create new and healthful blood. A fair trial is a certain cure.

Winchester's Genuine Preparation

of the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda, is the only reliable form of Dr. Churchill's remedy, and is approved by the medical profession generally. Use no other or any remedy containing iron.

PRICES.—In 7 and 16 ounce (pint) bottles, $1 and $2 each.

Proceedings of the City Council.

ADJOURNED MEETING,
MONDAY EVENING, April 16.

Present—The Mayor, and all the aldermen but Messrs. Fredendall and Shelton.

The finance committee made the following report on the account of the city treasurer:

To the Mayor and Common Council of the city of Janesville:

The committee to whom was referred the accounts and reports of the city treasurer report that they have examined the statement of the Center Avenue fund, made by the treasurer, and hereto annexed, and marked "A," and find the same correct.—Your committee received from the treasurer orders on the said fund amounting to $1132,15, which orders we have compared with the order book and have cancelled the same on said book; we recommend that said orders be destroyed by fire. The above orders are numbered as follows: No. 2, 3, 4, 6, 8, 9, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 17, 19, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 78, 79, 81,81,82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100, 101, 102, 104, 105. Your committee further report that they find in the hands of the city treasurer tax certificates of the sale of 1859, amounting to $1465,81, and certificates of the sale of 1860, amounting to $3022,37, to which add the costs; which certificates your committee have compared with the tax rolls for those years, and find the same correct. Your committee find that the city treasurer has received from the county treasurer during the past charter year, the sum of $8,156,85, in city orders and old street certificates; an account of which is herewith submitted, marked "B." Your committee recommend the destruction of the said city orders, and that the street certificates be sealed up and deposited with the city treasurer. The statement of the different funds, as made by the treasurer, is correct. Your committee report the state of the different funds in statements marked "C," attached thereto. Your committee herewith present the several city orders charged in the accounts of the city treasurer, and recommend that the same be destroyed. Your committee would further recommend that this report, and all the documents accompanying it be placed upon the record of the council.

IRA JUSTIN, JR.

The report of the committee was adopted, and the orders found according to the recommendation of the committee.

Ald. Dickson, from committee to investigate the circumstances connected with the imprisonment of Wm. Conners, reported Mr. Conners as sick and needing better attention than he could receive in jail, and recommended that he be discharged. Report adopted.

Ald. Dickson moved to refer the school orders presented for judgment to the judiciary committee to report at the next meeting of the council. Adopted.

An order of $335 from the Gazette office presented for judgment had the same reference.

The city attorney reported $2,333.06 in judgment against the city. Referred to the judiciary committee.

The bonds of Wm. M. Tallman as alderman, and A. H. Johnson and J. W. Plato as constables, were presented and approved.

Ald. Bates introduced an order authorizing the board of education to sell at their face certificates of returned city taxes to pay school orders now held and owned by school teachers, and on which judgment had been issued. Referred to the judiciary committee.

An appropriation of $3 from the 1st ward fund was made to Wm. Moore for cleaning street.

A communication was received from Beri Cook demanding the delivery to him of a $500 bond issued to A. M. Pratt which had been left with the city clerk.

On motion of Ald. Bates, this communication was laid on the table, and the council adjourned sine die.

MEETING OF THE COMMON COUNCIL.—The council meets this evening. Mayor Treat will deliver his inaugural, appoint his committees, and the new city government will commence its duties.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.—The new board of education of this city organized to-day by the election of S. W. Smith, President, and James Armstrong, Clerk.

INFORMATION WANTED.—Several years since Beverly Edwards, of Hempstead county, Arkansas, supposed he had killed a man in a difficulty and left the state. The man has since recovered. Edwards' mother, sisters, brothers and friends are deeply distressed at his continued absence. If any person can give any information of his whereabouts, they are requested to address James P. Oldham, Louisville, Ky.

OLD FOLKS SUPPER.—At an entertainment in Prescott, Wis., given by the ladies of the Congregational church, the old folks' supper room was supplied with bean porridge, hulled corn, boiled vegetables and brown bread. The bread was baked by a lady 80 years old, and dished by a lady 80 years old; and dishes were used that were from 70 to 100 years old.

THIS WILL DO.—Marshal, spare that dog, touch not a single hair; he worries many a hog, from out his muddy lair. O, when he was a pup, so frisky and so plump, he lapped his milk from a cup, when hungry—at a jump. And then his funny tricks, so funny in their place, so full of canine licks, upon your hands and face. You will surely let him live! O, do not kill him—dead; he wags his narrative, and prays for life—not lead. Go get the muzzle now, and put upon his mouth, and stop that bow, wow, wow! and tendency to drought. He is your children's pet, companion of their joy; you will not kill him yet, and thus their hopes destroy. No, Marshal, spare that pup, touch not a single hair; oh, put your pistol up, and go away from there!—Ex.

LIFE INSURANCE.—Those desiring this safest and cheapest protection for their families, can secure it in our Wisconsin company. It has already become, in reality, a state institution, having agents and patrons among the best business men in all the principal towns in the state. It is no longer a matter of doubt that life insurance can be conducted as well in Wisconsin as in Connecticut or any other eastern state.

Thus while duty demands that men should insure their lives, it also demands that they should keep their money for investment at home. Confident that our success has been more than equal to that of the most "unprecedented," we would cordially invite all our citizens to call at the office, south-west corner of Main and Wisconsin streets, and examine for themselves.

S. S. DAGGETT, Pres't.
A. W. KELLOGG, Sec'y.

☞ Messrs. Pixley & Harlow, produce dealers, and Capt. Geo. S. Dodge will receive applications for insurance in this home company, and will also be happy to give information as to the condition thereof, to any one desirous of being informed, in Janesville. apr17dawly

COMMERCIAL.

Janesville Wholesale Market.

Reported for the Janesville Gazette,
BY
BUMP & GRAY,
GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS.

JANESVILLE, APRIL 17, 1860.

Receipts of wheat were considerably larger to-day than yesterday, there being full 3000 bushels in the market during the day, and prices ruled firm at yesterdays quotations—shippers seeming anxious for No. 2 at 90@94c, and millers took the best sample freely at 95@98c, and in some cases 1,00 was paid for very choice. Receipts of corn and oats rather light and prices unchanged.

We make up prices as follows:

WHEAT—white winter 1.00a1.12½; good to choice milling spring at 95a98; common to fair shipping, 90 a94.

CORN—shelled, per 60 lbs., 35a42c; ear per 70 lbs. 30a33c.

OATS—in fair request at 27a28 per bushel.

BARLEY—dull at 40a55c per 50 lbs., com. to choice.

RYE—quotable at 60a65 per 60 lbs. None coming forward.

POTATOES—plenty at 30a40 per bushel for good to choice ones.

TIMOTHY SEED—scarce and in demand at 2.25a2.60 per 46 lbs.

BUTTER—ranges from 9 to 14 for common to choice roll.

EGGS—in fair demand at 7a8 per dozen.

HIDES—green, 6a6½; dry flint, 12a14.

FLOUR—spring at retail, 2.60, winter, 3.50.

POULTRY—chickens, 6a7; turkeys, 7a8.

Chicago Market.

Monday Evening, April 16.

The wheat market opened with a good demand at 1,02 for No. 2 spring, at which about 5000 bushels were sold. After the receipt of the New York dispatches, however, it became weaker, and at the close was dull. Oats were quiet at 34a34½c for No. 1 delivered. Rye in good demand at 58c. Barley active and steady, with liberal sales by sample at 60a71c. Flour was in limited request, and the sales were light at 5,15 for choice Spring extra, and 3,80a3,85 for medium Spring super. Highwines quiet, with sales of country at 17½c—city distillers in small lots at 18a18½c.

Non-Explosive Burning Fluid

USED WITH SAFETY & ECONOMY.

The Best in the Market.

Palmer's Drug and Tea Store.

WE have, for several years past dealt largely in BURNING FLUID, and have always, thus far, kept fully up to the times, in any improvements made in its manufacture. Nearly a year ago, in an appeal in favor of its more general use, based upon the fact that the raw material from which it is made, is mainly the product of our own farms, we publicly announced that there was, at the temperature at which it is generally used, "no explosive power whatever in Burning Fluid, as now made by those who understand the business in which they are engaged. That injury from its use was either the result of gross carelessness, or of undue alarm caused by a belief in its explosive power," &c. Since then we have manufactured and sold thousand of gallons to consumers in this city and vicinity, and if our assumption was an erroneous one, it would undoubtedly have been discovered ere this.

We are prepared to submit our Fluid to any test the public may call for, satisfied that, with ordinary care, no safer, better or more agreeable light can be produced. As we are indebted to no traveling "PROF. GREEN—O!" for the high state of perfection attained by us in its manufacture, we are, as usual, prepared to offer our Fluid at the LOWEST MARKET FIGURES, and to guarantee entire satisfaction in its use, or the money refunded.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS AND BUILDERS.

Important Discoveries and New Arrangements!

THE subscriber has discovered upon his premises a splendid

QUARRY OF FREESTONE,

which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city,

A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material,

He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated

Monterey Lime Stone Quarry,

on a scale equal to the demands of our enterprising citizens, and in order to accommodate his numerous customers, he has made arrangements to keep constantly on hand a large supply of

ATHENS MARBLE

(or Chicago stone.) He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the same, at a great reduction from former prices.

He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.

He is prepared to furnish

Cut Stone

of every description,

PLAIN, MOULDED, CARVED OR POLISHED FLAGGING

of any required dimension.

Curbing, Paving, Ruble and Coursing

stone of the best quality in the state, all of which will be delivered at his Quarries or any part of the city, to suit purchasers.

In conclusion, he begs to assure the public that from the superior quality of his materials, and facilities for furnishing, he can and will make it to their interests to patronize the Monterey Quarries.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

The Vote for Chief Justice.

The official vote received at Madison indicates the election of Judge Dixon. The Madison Journal has the official vote for forty-three counties in which Sloan's majority is 294, with Shawano, Douglas, Buffalo, Clark, Chippewa, Dunn, Door, La Fayette, La Pointe, Pepin, and Trempealeau still to come in.

The Shullsburgh Local brings us the returns for La Fayette county which gives 641 majority for Dixon. This probably, secures his election by two or three hundred majority.

P. S. The telegraph informs us that Dixon is probably elected by 150 majority.

An Awkward Record.

It will be remembered that near the close of the struggle for Speaker of the present House, the votes of the democrats, with a few exception were concentrated on W. N. H. Smith of North Carolina, (American) carrying him up to 112, which all but elected him. Among those who voted for Mr. Smith were Morris, Robinson, McClernand, Fouke and Logan of Illinois, and Larrabee of Wisconsin. Mr. Adrian, of New Jersey, in response to an inquiry, has written the following letter, which we commend to the special attention of the adopted citizens of Wisconsin who vote the democratic ticket:

WASHINGTON, March 10, 1860.

DEAR SIR:—I received your letter of the 3d inst., and cheerfully give you such knowledge as I possess, respecting the political views of the Hon. Mr. Smith of North Carolina, on the subject to which you refer, who was a candidate for the office of Speaker of the House of Representatives, and for whom the Hon. Mr. Allen, of your state, refused to cast his vote.

In a conversation which I had with Mr. Smith, a few days after the election of Mr. Pennington as Speaker, he remarked to me that he was supported by the American party in his district, for congress, and that he had been misrepresented on the floor of the House, by several democratic members, who stated that he had repudiated the principles of that party; that in his opinion, the period of five years for naturalization was altogether too short, and that in his published speeches throughout his district, when running as a candidate for congress, he advocated its extension to AT LEAST TEN YEARS.

During the same conversation, he expressed his views on the slavery question, maintaining that congress should intervene and protect slave property in the territories, if necessary, and utterly rejecting the great democratic doctrine of popular sovereignty.

Without extending this letter further, I would simply remark, that this is about the substance of the conversation which I had with Mr. Smith. Yours truly,

G. B. ADRAIN.

The foreign voters of this state will perceive by this that their leaders united in congress to elect a know nothing Speaker. Larrabee assisted in this work. His candidate it will be perceived, is equally committed to the extension of the time for the naturalization of foreigners, and the protection of slavery in the territories. These twin principles go together. The slave holder hates foreigners in the same ratio that he loves slavery. The settlement of laboring men in the south from foreign countries, interferes with the large planters, who dislike to have poor white people in the neighborhoods. They have an instinctive notion that there is some kind of conflict between free and slave labor, and they do not want examples of that kind before them.—Hence they go for extending the time for naturalization, and against homestead bills which give foreigners an equal opportunity with natives of the country.

We do not know how long the foreign born population of this country mean to support their political enemies, but we think this vote of the whole democratic party for a know nothing Speaker ought to open their eyes.

SOUTHERN DOUGLASISM.—The democratic state convention of Missouri has appointed eleven delegates in favor of Douglas and eight against him. It, however, takes strong ground in favor of the extension and perpetuation of slavery. Assuming as an indisputable fact that all the territories are slave soil, the resolutions proceed to affirm what it designates these cardinal principles: 1st. That congress has no power to abolish slavery in the territories. 2d. That territorial legislatures have no power to abolish or interdict slavery either by direct or unfriendly legislation, nor any power to impair the right of property in slaves. 3d. That the fugitive slave law has unquestionable claim to the respect and observance of all. 4th. That the early acquisition of Cuba is desirable.

If Douglas is nominated they will have a platform of another color in Wisconsin. It will be a shade or two whiter, on the outside, while the inside will correspond in complexion with the democratic sentiment of the south. For instance they "respect" the fugitive slave law in Missouri, while the Wisconsin democracy adopt a candidate who believes it unconstitutional. This is no evidence of their belief, but of their want of principle.

☞ The Chicago Herald blows up Owen Lovejoy for his "violence" but says never a word about Pryor and Barksdale. Those mild and amiable gentlemen are always right.

WIGFALL STILL RISING.—Senator Wigfall's last announcement proves that his power of eating fire increases daily. "The state of Texas," he shouted, "was a sovereign state, and exercised rights which had never been delegated to this miserable one-horse concern at Washington."

The table presented by us in another column shows how egregious were the blunders made by clerks, printers and canvassers in the late election. A brilliant worthy down in Grant county, sent up word, officially that "Scott Sloan" received 97 votes, and that one Luther B. Dixon received 182 votes. From the city of Janesville, where men of ordinary intelligence ought to transact their official duties 70 votes for Dixon are returned with some initial aside from the correct one. In Kenosha, eight blockheads voted for "Ixon," or, at least, are so returned.—Madison Argus.

No doubt you are very wise on the subject of canvassing election returns, but it is doubtful whether you are as well informed as you suppose, Mr. Argus. The returns for Luther H. Dixon are from Beloit and the town of Rock, in this county, and we are assured that they are correct. The people, to the number of 70 voted for Luther H. Dixon, and the canvassers, as in duty bound made their returns accordingly.

Their ballots cannot be canvassed for Luther S. Dixon, unless these seventy voters come forward and swear that they were mistaken, and intended to vote for him.

THE ALBANY TIMES.—We learn that J. Baker, Esq., formerly editor of the Free Press of this city, has purchased the Times, published at Albany, Green county. Mr. Baker possesses the ability to make an excellent newspaper, and we have no doubt he will do it. He has our best wishes in the enterprise. We hope the people of Albany will liberally sustain the paper, and we are quite sure that it will more than repay them, by bringing their town to the notice of the public, and in advancing the general interests of the locality where it is published.

BRIDGE CREEK HEARD FROM.—The Eau Claire Free Press gives the returns from this celebrated locality. It seems to have changed its politics since the days of "supplementary returns."

BRIDGE CREEK.—The glorious town of Bridge Creek is as true to republicanism as the needle to the pole. Out of 81 votes which she cast this spring, 72 of them were given to Spencer and Sloan. She is one of the strongholds of the county and her influence is always given for the right. All honor to the republicans of Bridge Creek.

☞ In view of the election of Dixon the Patriot says its rooster crows for the people and "the rights of all the states."—Considering that the Supreme Court of the United States is engaged in destroying the rights of the states, and in breaking down the barriers of the constitution to effect its purpose, this "crow" seems to be a little misplaced.

RESIGNED.—We regret to learn that Rev. H. W. Beers, pastor of Grace church, has resigned his charge, and accepted a call to Janesville, Wis. Mr. Beers has for several years resided in Lyons, and has won the universal esteem of our citizens. By his removal Grace church loses a faithful and worthy pastor and our city a good and valuable citizen. The good wishes of many warm friends will go with him to his new home.—Lyons (Iowa) Mirror.

Thus speak the neighbors of Rev. Mr. Beers, who is now the Pastor of Trinity church in this city. He has entered upon the discharge of his duties here, and preached his first sermon on Sunday last. We doubt not he will soon number as many warm friends among our citizens as at Lyons.

BENNETT ON PRYOR—PRYOR SHOWS THE WHITE FEATHER.—We publish elsewhere the particulars of the last Pickwickian duel at Washington. The parties were Pryor, of Virginia, and Potter, of Wisconsin, both members of the house. The affair is quite fresh in the minds of the public. On last Wednesday Pryor attempted to bully Potter, but without success. Potter refused to eat his words, whereupon the truculent member from Virginia made use of the most portentous language, speaking thus:—"The gentleman stands by his language. I understand him to give me the privilege of construing his remarks as I choose. Whether or no he will stand by it the sequel will demonstrate."

What is the sequel? How has the mountain labored, and what has it brought forth? Pryor challenges Potter in a Boabadil fashion, expecting that as dueling is especially repugnant to Potter's constituents, he will back down. Not a bit of it. Potter is not to be so easily moulded. Potter will be charmed to fight. Potter will select bowie knives, a favorite weapon with southern political nigger drivers. Pryor objects to the pet weapon of his class as "vulgar and inadmissible." Potter adheres to the humane and civilizing invention of Colonel Bowie, and Pryor and his friends say that they really cannot have anything to do with a person who plays with such nasty edge tools. Whereupon Colonel Lander, the friend of Potter, declares that he will take the place of the bloodthirsty Wolverine, and accomodate Pryor with hair triggers, or any "gentlemanly," elegant or refined weapons suited to the taste of the F. F. V.'s, some of whom, by the way, have fought with Bowie knives, and that not long ago. But Pryor "has no quarrel" with the colonel of wagon road fame, and so the matter drops. Potter goes back to the house, and the republicans chuckle. Pryor slinks about like a dog, his tail between his legs, and all the decent persons on the democratic side of the house are thoroughly ashamed of him.

We hope this ridiculous affair will not be without its moral lesson for those members of congress, on either side of the house, who have attempted to cover up their ignorance of the real duties and responsibilities of statesmen by assuming the manner, while they have not the pluck, of blackguards and shoulder-hitters. It is all very well for fellows like Pryor, who abuse women and non-combatants, until some fine day when they wake up the wrong passenger and have to eat dirt. The lesson is a wholesome one, and we hope that it will have a good effect upon congress, and keep the bullies straight, for the remainder of this session at least.—N. Y. Herald.

KEWAUNEE COUNTY.—We make the following extract from a private letter, from a friend in Kewaunee county, written April 5th, two days after election. He says:

"In this town of Carlton, there were polled 107 votes for town officers, and 98 for Justice of the supreme court, of which Sloan got 79, and Dixon 19, and not a Sloan ticket sent to this town, (given up for lost, I suppose.) Consequently all had to be written, and 19 votes were lost on that account. At the same time these voters all came loaded down with Dixon tickets. But a little exposition of the true principles from the top of a maple stump, sent the Dixon tickets into a thousand pieces, and such a demand for Sloan tickets you never saw for a small crowd."

The writer does not give the result in any other town, but it is quite evident that, unless some influence similar to the above was at work, the county has given a considerable majority for Dixon.—Free Dem.

Telegraphic

REPORTED FOR THE MORNING GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

LA FAYETTE COUNTY.—The official majority for Dixon in La Fayette county is 641.

MADISON, April 17.

Forty-six counties give Sloan 414 maj. Shawano, Douglas, Lafayette and Pepin are reported officially at 796 majority for Dixon. Clark, Door, Lapointe and Trempeleau not heard from. Probably Dixon 150 majority.

WASHINGTON, April 17.

HOUSE.—Mr. Schwartz offered a resolution which was read for information, instructing the committee on public expenditures to report a bill reducing the compensation of members of congress to $8 per diem for each day of actual service, and providing also that when both houses, by joint resolution, adjourned to attend a political convention the members voting therefor shall not receive pay during the recess.—(Laughter.)

Mr. Sherman objected to the resolution.

Mr. Houston understood that some gentleman drew their pay when paired off and absent, and if so he wanted this abuse corrected.

The house went into committee on the deficiency appropriation bill.

Mr. Conklin reviewed the president's position in regard to slavery in the territories as expressed in his annual message. The inhabitants of the free states have ever sought by moral and political forces to dissuade and discourage slavery. The contentions on this subject have given rise to bravado in this hall on both sides, and have lashed the public mind into intense activity. From this time forth we are to have results not arguments of issues, not compromises. The free states insist that slavery shall remain legalized only in slave holding states, and even their its increase must be unaided by piracy. They have an unalterable determination that slavery shall not range this continent. There is even those who hope that in its abiding place it will wither and die. This is the prayer of humanity, not the mission of a party. If the supreme court are infallible, then the constitution is nothing but wax in their hands. If the constution be as they expound it then in this year of grace, our allegiance is due to an instrument very different from that which guided the house who came before us.

SENATE.—A message was received from the president inclosing a communication from the secretary of war in reply to a resolution asking for information as to the seizure and imprisonment of naturalized citizens by foreign governments. The communication was not read, but was ordered to be printed.

Mr. Wilson offered a joint resolution authorizing a collection and publication of documents relating to the history of the colonization of America by commercial companies in England incorporated in 1606. Referred to the committee on the library.

WASHINGTON, April 16th.

A great number of delegates to Charleston have reached the city to-night, and all is animation and excitement. It is said that Douglas stock has declined, through a division of New England delegates for Gov. Toucey under the lead of Genl. Whiting, collector of Boston.

The Douglas rooms at the National are crowded, and speeches have been made by Senator Clingman and by Messrs. Hamilton of Texas, Vallindingham, Butler King of Georgia, Rust of Alabama, and others.

The Marshal of Ohio reports that the inhabitants of Ashtabula county are ready to take arms to resist the authority of the senate for bringing John Brown before the committee of investigation of the Harper's Ferry affair.

Col. Lander leaves here to-morrow, accompanied by two or three engineers, who have hitherto served with him on the wagon road expedition. His future business will be to inspect whatever may be done under contract, to furnish water along the route between Humbolt Valley and Honey Lake; also to remove impediments, &c.

Gen. Hamilton and Major Brittian have again addressed the military committee, in favor of the Texas regiment bill, and have demonstrated the impossibility of making the infantry efficient by mounting them.—Recruits in the army are not horsemen, while the Camanches are the best horsemen in the world.

Secretary Floyds letter was received by the committee.

President Buchanan gave as his reason for not doing so, a fear that his recommendation would injure the bill in the present state of party feeling. The result is still unsettled.

There are some singular facts connected with the arrest of Mr. Potter. The officer called at the Benue House and sent up the name of Mr. Keitt or Keiss.

Mr. Potter sent word for him to come up. When he was ushered in he informed Mr. Potter he had come on unpleasant business. Mr. Potter supposed that the correspondence was to be re-opened, and that Hon. L. M. Keitt, of S. C., was below. The officer then informed him that he had a warrant for the arrest of Mr. Pryor and himself.—Mr. Potter expressed his surprise, as he had been in the house, in the street, and had participated in debate. The officer said he had been to Alexandria, but found the mayor and all Mr. Pryor's friends opposed to an arrest, and that he was obliged to let him go. Mr. Potter then went to the magistrate's office and gave bonds. About this time Mr. Pryor arrived in Washington with Mr. Pryor's last note to Mr. Potter.—Mr. Chislom was subsequently arrested and brought to this city, but was allowed to go without bonds. Mr. Allen, the officer who arrested Mr. Potter, was shown all the correspondence at Alexandria, but not the note from Mr. Pryor accepting the terms of Mr. Pryor is arrested, and is to appear to-morrow and give bail. A street fight was feared, and both parties were closely watched by their friends to-day.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., April 17.

Report says that Adams & Co.'s express messenger on the train from Boston was robbed last night. The safe is said to have been thrown from the baggage car between New York and New Haven, and is said to have contained $100,000.

NEW YORK, April 17th.

The debate on the slavery question which for several days has occupied the Methodist Episcopal Conference, continued through the whole of yesterday and was brought to a close last eve. The Erie resolutions which call upon the general conference to so change the rule of discipline that all slaveholding shall be cause for ex-communication, were negatived by the decisive vote of 123 to 43.

THE VIRGINIA AGENT IN LIMBO.—The agent of Virginia, named Camp, who was sent to Iowa to arrest Coppoc, and whose adventures in escaping from the Muscatine landlord, have gone the rounds of the press, has finally brought up in the Rock Island jail. The embassador was "jugged" at the instance of Mr. Smith, of the Island City Hotel, who wrote some days since to the secretary of state of Virginia, in reference to his bill against Camp. The reply he received was that Camp was no longer an agent of the state, and even if he was, that fact did not render Virginia liable for his debts. He was accordingly "capiased." A fearful view to take of the case is that the F. F. V.'s may consider this arrest as clearly justifying them in dissolving the Union.—Rock Island Advertiser.

ONE RULE FOR THE NORTH AND ANOTHER FOR THE SOUTH.—Senator Sumner, on Friday, called the attention of the senate to the outrageous treatment experienced by Mr. Sanborn, at the hands of the United States officials who were sent to arrest and bring him before Mr. Mason's Harper's Ferry committee. He improved the occasion to contrast this brutal proceeding with the very different course pursued towards Gov. Wise. This functionary openly proclaimed that he knew a great deal more about the Harper's Ferry matter than he chose to tell even to the investigating committee. Of course, the committee prudently resolved not to send for Gov. Wise, who knew so much about the affair, but despatched officers to drag, handcuffed to Washington, a citizen of Massachusetts, who knew nothing about it. The reader will plainly perceive that there was nothing "sectional" in this course.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

DUEL UNDER THE ROCKY MOUNTAINS—CIVILIZATION AND ITS CUSTOMS.—The Rocky Mountain News brings us full particulars of the late duel between Gov. Bliss, of Jefferson territory, and Dr. Stone, member of the legislature, which resulted in the death of the latter. The first offence was given by Gov. Bliss, in a toast at a dinner party, and, singular enough, considering the time and place, was deliberate, and designed as a personal reflection and insult. This was avowed on the spot, and of course it only remained for the parties to settle the terms of the meeting. These were shot guns, loaded with a single ball, distance thirty paces, time three o'clock in the afternoon, place Highland side of the Platte river.

At the appointed hour, the principals took their stations. The sun, which was obscured by flying clouds, was over Mr. Bliss' left shoulder. The wind over Dr. Stone's left shoulder, and blowing in light fitful gusts, directly in the face of Mr. Bliss. Dr. Stone removed his coat and vest, leaving only a close fitting suit of dark cloth. Mr. Bliss wore a loose sack of brown cloth, buttoned down in front, but very loose and flowing. The word was given by Mr. Warren, two or three times in practice, when the arms were presented to the combatants, the seconds and the surgeon retired, and the fatal word was given.

The report of Dr. Stone's gun followed immediately the word "fire." Mr. Bliss' was an instant later and perfectly distinct.

Dr. Stone fell to the ground, supposed to be mortally wounded, the ball of his opponent entering the left thigh, penetrating the bladder and passing through his entire body. The ball of Dr Stone struck the ground some ten feet in advance of his opponent. Dr. Stone declined a second fire, the parties were then removed from the ground.

It is stated that the duel was witnessed by from 600 to 800 spectators, who were very quiet and orderly, and dispersed immediately after seeing the result.

A SENATOR ON POVERTY AS A CRIME.—Here is an elegant extract of a recent speech by Senator Wigfall, of Texas:

"It was popular to talk of the poor.—Poverty, he said, was a crime. The man who was poor had sinned, and there was a screw loose in his head somewhere. He would amend the title of the bill to read 'for the encouragement of crime, providing for criminals and violating the constitution.' It was popular, he repeated, to talk of the bone and sinew of the land, of wool hats and brogans, but poverty was a crime. He would not pander to prejudice by such talk. The bill provided for the purlieus of London, the five points of New York, and criminals who violate the law when they get on the lands. The bill provides for those unable to provide for themselves. Gentlemen tried to be popular in the introduction of such a bill. It was a great mistake of any man to suppose that the people had no sense. [Laughter.] These lands would be occupied by the outpourings of jails, &c., and when they were represented in congress, he would like to see the man who wore the ermine. Great God! what a sight it would be."

Somebody asked Wigfall if Texas had not set the example by donating public lands. They didn't catch Wigfall that way. He slipped the bridle and run, like this:

"Texas could please her own fancy. She had a right to do as she pleased with her own property, to give it to a missionary society, to publish a Bible, or to gamble it off in hell. [Laughter.] Texas was a free sovereign state, and exercised rights which were not delegated to this miserable one-horse concern in Washington." [Renewed laughter.]

The Fighting Chivalry.

What an arrant set of cowards and bullies the democratic chivalry are—when it comes to the sticking point. Mr. Roger A. Pryor is a scion of one of the most illustrious of the F. F. V's., by birth and education, claiming to be a gentleman and a brave man. But by manners and conduct proving himself to be a blackguard and a coward. Mr. Pryor stands forth as the representative of southern chivalry. An old and experienced duellist an excellent pistol shot, and expert in all the laws of the "code duello," the Virginian has fought several duels—by his deadly aim he has generally succeeded in "pricking" his antagonist, and by presenting his feather edge (according to the code) to his adversary's pistol, he has always come off without material damage. In view of the many combats, and a supposed willingness to fight anybody, at any time on any or no provocation, the "chivalry" of his district in Virginia, put their wise brave heads together and elected this illustrious scion of the F. F. V's., to a seat in congress. Under an express warrant and stipulation, that the aforesaid Pryor was to brow beat and bully his brother members, and the north generally at any every opportunity.

Mr. Pryor goes to congress, he makes a speech and as a rational and inevitable consequence of opening his mouth makes an ass of himself, by a violent disunion harrangue. Good! say his chivalrous constituents.

Mr. Pryor in pursuit of his contract—in reply to an unanswerable argument, of John Hickman of Pennsylvania, stretches himself to his full height of six feet or more, and tells the pale consumptive Hickman that he is a liar.

Bravo! say the F. F. V's.

Bennett of the Herald takes Pryor to task for his congressional course, and in reply the gentlemanly Virginian assails the chastity of Bennett's wife. All decent men are disgusted—but "Huzzah for Pryor!" say the pleased hangers of old John Brown. Pryor is delighted. Pryor feels his consequence. In the pride of his heart he extends a general invitation to anybody to tread on his coat tails, or knock a chip off his shoulder and exclaims, "I am Sir Oracle, and when I ope my lips let no dog bark."

Lovejoy makes a speech, assailing the loved relic of barbarism. Down rushes the irrepressible Pryor to break down the black republican—but—do his eyes deceive him! several northern members rush forward in defence of free speech, and not liking the looks of things, the Virginian withdraws, and in revenge crosses out in the Globe report the actions and speech of his principal opponents.

Growls from his constituents!

What shall I do to regain my credit at home? queries the honorable member from Virginia. I am obliged to retire and let Lovejoy alone, and the northern member whose words I erased from the Globe report, actually tells me to my face that I had no business to do so! Eureka! I have it, this man is Potter of Wisconsin. I will challenge Potter, he will refuse and then I will accuse the north of cowardice, or if he accepts, egad! I will shoot him—Potter shall die, and my credit at home shall be sufficient thereat to elect me Governor at least.

Accordingly the challenge was sent, but much to the disgust of the Honorable Roger A. Pryor the member from Wisconsin, Mr. Potter, will fight, and furthermore not being familiar with the pistols, is not content to stand up like a southern gentleman and have a ball decently and pleasantly located under the fifth rib, but he actually proposes Bowie knives! The brute! The honorable member from Virginia is willing to stand upon a sort of "heads I win, tails you lose arrangement," and exchange shots with a tyro in pistol practice, but the idea of having a "demd" unpleasant loosening of his bowels, the thought of being pleasantly tickled with the point of a Bowie knife don't suit the F. F. V., and he declines in a dignified manner on account of the weapon being barbarous and inhuman, and as Potter refuses being a target, the duel can't come off.

Now what is to be done? Here is the redoubtable Pryor actually spoiling for a fight, if he can only fight with pistols.

He is accommodated; up steps Col. Lander and offers to fight him with his own weapons.

Ah! the Virginia is once more happy! Col. Lander is Mr. Potter's second; Col. Lander is a northern man, born in Massachusetts, the very hot bed of black republicanism; Col. Lander will fight with pistols.

But stop! This Lander is one of the best pistol shots in the country; this Lander can ring the bell at fifteen paces (a gentlemanly distance) every time; and the chances are, that if Pryor went out with him, one of the most illustrious of the F. F. V.'s would be obliged to go into the expense of mourning, and a gentleman about the size of Roger A. Pryor be in need of an undertaker, and coppers for his eyelids. And therefore, under all the circumstances, the Virginian is glad to slink back to his seat like a whipped cur—quit giving the lie, and pin up his coat tails amidst groans from his constituents, and a shrewd suspicion in outside quarters that Roger A. Pryor is like all bullies—a coward at heart.

THE CARSTANG–SHAW CASE.—There was quite a crowd present at the opening of the court of common pleas, yesterday, in anticition of another chapter being commenced in the celebrated breach of promise trial; but the plaintiff's counsel failing to appear on behalf of the motion for a new trial, the crowd went away disappointed. The interest in the case in the community, appears to have increased rather than diminished, by the verdict for the defendant. Miss Carstang and her sister, are reported to have vacated their house, No. 123, Fifth street, which was so often alluded to on the trial, and was the scene of the alleged courtship between the millionarie and the ironing girl. Only one thing remains to give the finishing touch to the case, and that is a dramatization of the whole affair. Miss Carstang, the poor girl; Mr. Shaw, the rich man; the introduction; the calls; the flowers and the gloves; Miss C. at Tower Grove; Mrs. Seaman looking through the key-hole; scenes in the Fifth street house; Effie combing a lap dog with a fine tooth comb; the promise to marry; desertion; the suit; the lawyers; judge and jury; verdict for the injured innocence, $100,000; a sudden transformation; hopes dashed to the earth; new trial; old man jubilant; Song, "We are off for Charleston;" the return with depositions and witnesses; second trial; scenes in court; the lie direct; verdict for the defendant.—Tableau, Miss Carstang as she appeared when she heard the news; Tower Grove sporteth a flag; red fire, etc., etc., etc.—These matters properly written, and skillfully handled by some patch-work author, like Bourcicault, would make a splendid drama, and will insure a run of a hundred nights on its production.—Missouri Democrat.

The United Presbyterian church of Scotland, has secured, by contribution, an "aged ministers' retiring fund" of $95,000. Ministers compelled by age or infirmity to desist from the active labors of their office, are to receive an annuity of $300 each, from the interest of this fund. The English congregational Union is engaged, with every promise of early success, in an effort to secure, by similar means, $250 annually for each aged or infirm minister.

MARRIED.

Mr. Doty is the foreman of our job room, and many of our citizens have had the evidence of his skill and taste as a practical workman. He has now undertaken a new and untried "job," and those who know him best will readily believe him fully qualified to fill honorably his new "sit." Good luck go with him, and may the same excellencies which have characterised the discharge of his duties in his old vocation shine brightly in the new relations he has assumed.

MOST EXTRAORDINARY RESULTS

FROM THE USE OF

WINCHESTER'S GENUINE

Hypophosphites

IN THE CURE OF CONSUMPTION.

I need only call the attention of all Consumptive sufferers, whether in advanced or the incipient stage of the disease, to the following extract from a letter addressed to me by a physician of great experience, and extensive practice in Chester Co., Pa. The voluntary evidence of professional men, such as that of Dr. Townsend, ought to convince the most skeptical of the extraordinary efficacy of my preparation of Hypophosphites:

CHATHAM, PA., 3d Month, 26th, 1860.

FRIEND J. WINCHESTER:— * * Thirty-six persons have obtained the medicine from me, twelve of whom have been under my own care. Five of them were, in my opinion, and in the judgment of other physicians, hopeless cases of Phthisis—irritable cough, copious expectorations of a purulent character, night sweats and emaciation. These cases were from one to three years' standing. Auscultation and percussion developed sounds which, taken in connection with other symptoms, gave evidence of a condition from which I have never, in seventeen years' practice, seen a single case recover by any other treatment. * * Under the use of the Hypophosphites, all the bad symptoms ceased; they have gained flesh and strength and health—some of them better than they had enjoyed for seven years previously.

The other cases under my care were in the incipient stage, and in them all symptoms and traces of the disease have disappeared. Of those who were not under my care, I have not heard of a single patient who himself benefitted by the use of the remedy, although in some of them the disease was too far advanced to admit the possibility of recovery.

I presume I am as skeptical in medicines or specifics as most physicians; yet, from the experience I have had in the use of Dr. J. F. Churchill's Remedy for Tuberculosis, I would say to all who have a tendency to that disease—take it, and the sooner the better, before there is any disorganization. * * *

W. W. TOWNSEND, M. D.

The Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda act with promptness and certainty in every stage of Consumption, and with invariable efficacy in all derangements of the nervous and blood systems, general debility, dyspepsia, asthma, rickets, female complaints, spermatorrhea, in all disorders dependent on imperfect or impaired nutrition, and in all cases of local or constitutional debility. They increase the nervous or vital energy, relieve cough, check night sweats, diminish expectoration, improve the appetite, arrest diarrhoea, promote refreshing sleep, and create new and healthful blood. A fair trial is a certain cure.

Winchester's Genuine Preparation

of the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda, is the only reliable form of Dr. Churchill's remedy, and is approved by the medical profession generally. Use no other or any remedy containing iron.

PRICES.—In 7 and 16 ounce (pint) bottles, $1 and $2 each.

Proceedings of the City Council.

Adjourned Meeting,
Monday Evening, April 16.

Present—The Mayor, and all the aldermen but Messrs. Fredendall and Shelton.

The finance committee made the following report on the account of the city treasurer:

To the Mayor and Common Council of the city of Janesville:

The committee to whom was referred the accounts and reports of the city treasurer report that they have examined the statement of the Center Avenue fund, made by the treasurer, and hereto annexed, and marked "A," and find the same correct.—Your committee received from the treasurer orders on the said fund amounting to $1132,18, which orders we have compared with the order book and have cancelled the same on said book; we recommend that said orders be destroyed by fire. The above orders are numbered as follows: No. 2, 3, 4, 6, 8, 9, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 17, 19, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 78, 79, 81, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100, 101, 102, 104, 105. Your committee further report that they find in the hands of the city treasurer tax certificates of the sale of 1859, amounting to $1469,81, and certificates of the sale of 1860, amounting to $3022,37, to which add the costs; which certificates your committee have compared with the tax rolls for those years, and find the same correct. Your committee find that the city treasurer has received from the county treasurer during the past charter year, the sum of $8,156,35, in city orders and old street certificates; an account of which is herewith submitted, marked "B." Your committee recommend the destruction of the said city orders, and that the street certificates be sealed up and deposited with the city treasurer. The statement of the different funds, as made by the treasurer, is correct. Your committee report the state of the different funds in statements marked "C," attached thereto. Your committee herewith present the several city orders charged in the accounts of the city treasurer, and recommend that the same be destroyed. Your committee would further recommend that this report, and all the documents accompanying it be placed upon the record of the council.

IRA JUSTIN, JR.

The report of the committee was adopted, and the orders found according to the recommendation of the committee.

Ald. Dickson, from committee to investigate the circumstances connected with the imprisonment of Wm. Conners, reported Mr. Conners as sick and needing better attention than he could receive in jail, and recommended that he be discharged. Report adopted.

Ald. Dickson moved to refer the school orders presented for judgment to the judiciary committee to report at the next meeting of the council. Adopted.

An order of $335 from the Gazette office presented for judgment had the same reference.

The city attorney reported $2,333.06 in judgment against the city. Referred to the judiciary committee.

The bonds of Wm. M. Tallman as alderman, and A. H. Johnson and J. W. Plato as constables, were presented and approved.

Ald. Bates introduced an order authorizing the board of education to sell at their face certificates of returned city taxes to pay school orders now held and owned by school teachers, and on which judgment had been asked. Referred to the judiciary committee.

An appropriation of $3 from the 1st ward fund was made to Wm. Moore for cleaning street.

A communication was received from Beri Cook demanding the delivery to him of a $500 bond issued to A. M. Pratt which had been left with the city clerk.

On motion of Ald. Bates, this communication was laid on the table, and the council adjourned sine die.

Meeting of the Common Council.—The council meets this evening Mayor Treat will deliver his inaugural, appoint his committees, and the new city government will commence its duties.

Board of Education.—The new board of education of this city organized to day by the election of S. W. Smith, President, and James Armstrong, Clerk.

Information Wanted.—Several years since Beverly Edwards, of Hempstead county, Arkansas, supposed he had killed a man in a difficulty and left the state. The man has since recovered. Edwards' mother, sisters, brothers and friends are deeply distressed at his continued absence. If any person can give any information of his whereabouts, they are requested to address James P. Oldham, Louisville, Ky.

Old Folks Supper.—At an entertainment in Prescott, Wis., given by the ladies of the Congregational church, the old folks' supper room was supplied with bean porridge, hulled corn, boiled vegetables and brown bread. The bread was baked by a lady 80 years old, and dished by a lady 80 years old; and dishes were used that were from 70 to 100 years old.

This Will Do.—Marshal, spare that dog, touch not a single hair; he worries many a hog, from out his muddy lair. O, when he was a pup, so frisky and so plump, he lapped his milk from a cup, when hungry—at a jump. And then his funny tricks, so funny in their place, so full of canine licks, upon your hands and face. You will surely let him live! O, do not kill him—dead; he wags his narrative, and prays for life—not lead. Go get the muzzle now, and put upon his mouth, and stop that bow, wow, wow! and tendency to drought. He is your children's pet, companion of their joy; you will not kill him yet, and thus their hopes destroy. No, Marshal, spare that pup, touch not a single hair; oh, put your pistol up, and go away from there!—Ex.

Life Insurance.—Those desiring this safest and cheapest protection for their families, can secure it in our Wisconsin company. It has already become, in reality, a state institution, having agents and patrons among the best business men in all the principal towns in the state. It is no longer a matter of doubt that life insurance can be conducted as well in Wisconsin as in Connecticut or any other eastern state.

Thus while duty demands that men should insure their lives, it also demands that they should keep their money for investment at home. Confident that our success has been more than equal to that of the most "unprecedented," we would cordially invite all our citizens to call at the office, south-west corner of Main and Wisconsin streets, and examine for themselves.

S. S. DAGGETT, Pres't.
A. W. Kellogg, Sec'y.

☞ Messrs. Pixley & Harlow, produce dealers, and Capt. Geo. S. Dodge will receive applications for insurance in this home company, and will also be happy to give information as to the condition thereof, to any one desirous of being informed, in Janesville. apr13dawly

COMMERCIAL.

Janesville Wholesale Market.

Reported for the Janesville Gazette,
by
BUMP & GRAY,
GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS.

JANESVILLE, April 17, 1860.

Receipts of wheat were considerably larger to-day than yesterday, there being full 3000 bushels in the market during the day, and prices ruled firm at yesterdays quotations—shippers seeming anxious for No. 2 at 90@94c, and millers took the best sample freely at 95@98c, and in some cases 1,00 was paid for very choice. Receipts of corn and oats rather light and prices unchanged.

We make up prices as follows:

WHEAT—white winter 1.00a1.12½; good to choice milling spring at 95a98; common to fair shipping, 90 a94.

CORN—shelled, per 60 lbs., 38a42c; ear per 70 lbs. 30a33c.

OATS—In fair request at 27a28 per bushel.

BARLEY—dull at 40a55c per 50 lbs., com. to choice.

RYE—quotable at 60a65 per 60 lbs. None coming forward.

POTATOES—plenty at 30a40 per bushel for good to choice ones.

TIMOTHY SEED—scarce and in demand at 2.25a2.60 per 46 lbs.

BUTTER—ranges from 9 to 14 for common to choice roll.

EGGS—in fair demand at 7a8 per dozen.

HIDES—green, 6a6½; dry flint, 12a14.

FLOUR—spring at retail, 2.60, winter, 3.50.

POULTRY—chickens, 6a7; turkeys, 7a8.

Chicago Market.

Monday Evening, April 16.

The wheat market opened with a good demand at 1,02 for No. 2 spring, at which about 5000 bushels were sold. After the receipt of the New York dispatches, however, it became weaker, and at the close was dull. Oats were quiet at 34a34½c for No. 1 delivered. Rye in good demand at 83c. Barley active and steady, with libera sales by sample at 60a71c. Flour was in limited request, and the sales were light at 5,15 for choice Spring extra, and 3,80a3,85 for medium Spring super. Highwines quiet, with sales of country at 17½c—city distillers in small lots at 18a18½c.

Non-Explosive Burning Fluid
USED WITH SAFETY & ECONOMY.

The Best in the Market.

Palmer's Drug and Tea Store.

WE have, for several years past dealt largely in BURNING FLUID, and have always, thus far, kept fully up to the times, in any improvements made in its manufacture. Nearly a year ago, in an appeal in favor of its more general use, based upon the fact that the raw material from which it is made, is mainly the product of our own farms, we publicly announced that there was, at the temperature at which it is generally used, "no explosive power whatever in Burning Fluid, as now made by those who understand the business in which they are engaged. That injury from its use was either the result of gross carelessness, or of undue alarm caused by a belief in its explosive power," &c. Since then we have manufactured and sold thousand of gallons to consumers in this city and vicinity, and if our assumption was an erroneous one, it would undoubtedly have been discovered ere this.

We are prepared to submit our Fluid to any test the public may call for, satisfied that, with ordinary care, no safer, better or more agreeable light can be produced. As we are indebted to no traveling "Prof. Green—O!" for the high state of perfection attained by us in its manufacture, we are, as usual, prepared to offer our Fluid at the LOWEST MARKET FIGURES, and to guarantee entire satisfaction in its use, or the money refunded.
